The injured member dropped to Holland's side, but he coninued to fight gamely with his right and finished out the round. Frits wanted 21, Crescents at Bay Ridge. Foley, his second, plainly saw that towel when the gong sounded for the third round. There was nothing else for award the bout to Berg.

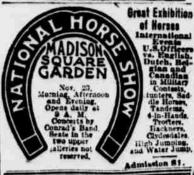

Jimmy Coffey, the Harlem lightweight, outpointed Special Delivery Hirsh of Chicago at the New Polo A. A. in the main event of ten rounds. Coffey set the pace at the start and he found Hirsh just as willing to keep up with him until the sixth round, when Coffey increased his lead by constantly sending in rapid left jabs. In this round Coffey maintained this lead until the final session, which entitled him to the ho rs.
